

XM Radio should not be limited. XM Radio is a valuable service I pay for. As an American citizen I have the right to hear local weather and all of the rest of the programming XM provides. It looks like the big monopolies are worried about competition. They are pathetic in asking for these changes in XM broadcasting. I urge you to not censor XM Radio.

Sincerely,

Lars A. Ecklund